

Rethinking the Cold War in Asia: experiences, perspectives, concepts
Monday 30 September 2019

Draft schedule

Format: each presenter will speak for 40 mins. Then a Czech discussant will respond to their paper for 5 mins, followed by questions from the audience for 15 mins.

9.00	Welcome and introductory remarks Ondrej Beranek (Director of OI) May Ngo
9.10- 9.50	Hajimu Masuda National University of Singapore Unlearning Cold War Narratives: Examining Recent Cold War Historiography.
9.50- 10.10	Discussant response and audience Q&A Jan Koura Charles University
10.10- 10.30	Coffee break
10.30- 11.10	Hyung Gu Lynn The University of British Columbia Triangulating the Cold War: Decolonization, Development, and Anti-Communism in Relations between Japan, South Korea, and North Korea, 1948-1992
11.10- 11.30	Discussant response and audience Q&A TBC
11.30- 12.10	Isabelle Cheng University of Portsmouth Speaking on Behalf of the State: Women Broadcasters behind Loudspeakers and on Radio during the Cold War in Taiwan
12.10- 12.30	Discussant response and audience Q&A Jiří Hudeček Charles University
12.30- 14.00	Break for lunch ( lunch is not provided by the Institute )
14.00- 14.40	Vatthana Pholsena Centre for Southeast Asian Studies, French National Centre for Scientific Research

	The persisting pasts of the Cold War: commemorations and memorials on a key front line
14.40- 15.00	Discussant response and audience Q&A TBC
15.00- 15.20	Coffee break
15.20- 16.00	May Ngo Oriental Institute, Czech Academy of Sciences Chinese-Cambodians in the Vietnam War: an oral history of the 'other' soldiers in the Vietcong
16.00- 16.20	Discussant response and audience Q&A TBC
16.20- 17.00	General discussion/Closing remarks
18.00	Presenters and discussants dinner